

Consultant (all genders)

Systems Engineering

Department Systems Engineering
Experience Entry-level position and professional
Site(s) Barcelona

Possible roles & tasks

- Develop and implement innovative systems engineering solutions for our technology-driven customers
- Design, manage and implement requirement profiles, system architectures, model simulations and test cases
- Analyze and specify development processes, methods and tools and model functional and logical models
- Design, model and evaluate development processes
- Work in alternating, ambitious and professional project teams and prove your professional know-how as well as your team and communication skills
- Collaborate with an international team worldwide

Profile

- Fascination for the technology development of technologies, openness and willingness to quickly familiarize oneself with new topics
- Successfully completed studies in mechatronics, mechanical engineering, systems engineering, computer science, electrical engineering, MINT or similar fields of study
- Interest in systems and safety engineering, process management, method development and project management
- Very good English language skills
- Willingness to travel

Benefits

Individual Trainings

Team Events

OnBoarding Week

Global Network

Personal Mentoring

Innovative working culture

Own Hardware

INVENSITY

We are an innovation and technology consultancy with an international orientation. We support our customers with individual solutions for technological challenges throughout the entire development process.

Our customers are mainly from the high-tech industry, including automotive and transportation, aerospace, medical technology, energy and telecommunications.

We have offices in Germany (Hamburg, Düsseldorf, Wiesbaden, Stuttgart, Munich), Spain (Barcelona), the Philippines (Manila) and the US (Detroit, MI).

Your application

If you share our passion for technology, apply now with your CV, your relevant certificates and, if applicable, your current work/residence permit:

Career.es@inensity.com

Any questions? +34 654 622 618