

(Junior) (all genders) HR Generalist

Department Human Relations Department
Experience Entry-level-Position
Site(s) Munich, Hamburg

Possible roles & tasks

- Take on tasks along the entire employee lifecycle with a 360-degree view, from the identification of new talents, through employee care and development, up to alumni management
- Independently take responsibility for the recruiting process and ensure an optimal candidate experience, taking on the tasks of active sourcing, conducting interviews and overall applicant management
- Support colleagues on all HR-related topics
- Expand your knowledge in operational personnel management, personnel marketing and personnel support
- Help shape the direction of the company by developing conceptual and strategic HR projects and contribute your own ideas
- Take on organizational responsibility for your office location (e.g., for events, office organization)

Profile

- You have successfully completed a degree in business administration, (business) psychology, human resources or similar.
- You are an empathic team player with a convincing, inspiring and open personality and have very good organizational skills
- You enjoy working independently and in a varied manner
- You bring initial knowledge of sourcing channels as well as recruiting strategies to fill the pipeline with engineers and IT experts
- You are fluent in German and English

Benefits

Individual Trainings

Team Events

OnBoarding Week

Global Network

Personal Mentoring

Innovative working culture

Own Hardware

INVENSITY

We are an innovation and technology consultancy with an international orientation. We support our customers with individual solutions for technological challenges throughout the entire development process.

Our customers are mainly from the high-tech industry, including automotive and transportation, aerospace, medical technology, energy and telecommunications.

We have offices in Germany (Hamburg, Düsseldorf, Wiesbaden, Stuttgart, Munich), Spain (Barcelona), the Philippines (Manila) and the USA (Detroit, MI).

Your application

If you share our passion for technology, apply now with your CV, your relevant certificates and, if applicable, your current work/residence permit:

career@invensity.com

Any questions? +49 611 504 754 0